

For the door itself, try your hand at an asymmetrical arrangement to distinguish your entrance from that of every other house in the block. Mass greens, balls, and stars at one corner, letting the composition trail down one side and across the top of the entryway.

A door arrangement that is different

