

Massive porch columns can be handsomely covered with large, bold motifs. Here's an idea that you can try when you decorate yours: Cut oversized holly leaves from green aluminum foil and arrange them in clusters, attaching red Christmas balls for berries. Then string the clusters of leaves on a wire and wind them round and round the porch column, in a climbing vine fashion.

Giant holly leaves climb a porch column

