

Whenever you're not using your serving pieces during the holidays, make them festive. Fill a tiered piece with tinsel or greens, and glass ornaments. Place your prettiest stemmed glass on the top tier, also filled with greens, and crown with a top-of-the-tree ornament. If you have a handsome lazy susan, make it even more decorative (when it's not in use), by filling each section with Christmas balls of different colors and shapes.

